Understanding Worship

Song of Confession: Now that we have acknowledged God's great glory, we must confess that we fall far short of it because of our own sin. In humility, we admit that we are not sinners because we sin, but rather we sin because we are sinners. We confess that we do not love God with all of our heart, soul, mind and strength. We do not love our neighbor as our self. Our sin is a great offense to a holy God, and it separates us from Him, and a great debt is owed, and it must be paid if God is to be just. If we are going to embrace the magnificent gift of the Gospel, we must begin with an honest appraisal of where we are without it: lost and hopeless. If we cannot see ourselves as slaves to sin, we cannot understand what it means to be freed from sin in Christ.
